Deaths and Funerals

MRS. JOHN BOWER

The funeral of Mrs. John Bower of Sydenham was held at the O. H. Berry funeral home with Rev. E. D. Snelgrove of Grace United Church in charge of the service.

Mrs. Bower's death occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. U. F. Blakslee, following a short illness. Due to failing health she had been residing with her daughter since June of this year.

Prior to her marriage to the late John Bower she was Annie Hebert, daughter of the late Louis Hebert and Sarah Teepell of Bedford Mills. Following her marriage she took up residence in this district, spending the rest of her life in the immediate vicinity.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Reginald Werner of Toronto, Mrs. Douglas Hamilton of Cornwall, Mrs. U. F. Blakslee of Sydenham, five grandchildren and two great grandchildren. She is also survived by one brother, Charles Hebert of Kingston, and one sister, Mrs. W. B. Reid of Gananoque.

Pall-bearers were Myles Spafford, Wallace Spafford, Edward Wood, George Davey, sr., Elgin Brawley and Wallace Roushorn.

Interment took place in the family plot in Sydenham Cemetery. Fri 7 Aug 1953

DAVID AYERS

PRESCOTT—David Ayers, former Prescott man, died Wednesday at the home of his son, Herbert Ayers, 322 Shakespeare avenue, Eastview. Mr. Ayres, well-known resident of Prescott for over 20 years, was in his 79th year and had been in frail health for some time.

The funeral service will be held on Friday at 2:30 p.m. in the George T. Appleton funeral home, Prescott, with Rev. M. B. Jose officiating. Burial will be held at Woodland Cemetery, Hamilton.

Mr. Ayers was the son of William Ayers and his wife Mary Towers of Hamilton. An electroplater by trade, he came to Prescott 27 years ago and had served with the Newell Manufacturing

DAMASK DIAPERS

Early damasks, much like rics now used for tablecloths, were called diapers in some parts of the world, according to Encyclopedia Britannica.

Co., here, until retirement. Years ago he made his home in Eastview with his son.

He was a member of the Prescott Presbyterian Church, Lodge, AF and AM, Prescott of the American Platers' Association. An ardent baseball fan, he had served a number of years as an executive of the Prescott Baseball Club.

His wife, the former Lucy McDon, predeceased him in 1941. He is survived by his son, Herbert, and four daughters, Mrs. H. N. Whitney (Naomi) of Prescott, Mrs. L. H. Millard (Agnes) of Kingston, Mrs. John Do (Marion) of Prescott, and E. L. Jackson (Dorothy) of Edmonton, Alta. Also surviving are four sisters, Mrs. Mary T. of Toronto, Mrs. Ann Noon of Toronto, Miss Barbara Ayers of Toronto, Miss Maud Ayers of Los Angeles, Calif. There are also nine grandchildren and a number of nephews.

Handwritten text, mostly illegible due to extreme blurriness. The text appears to be organized into several paragraphs or sections, possibly separated by lines or small indentations. The ink is dark, and the paper is off-white. The handwriting is cursive and somewhat slanted. The text is too blurry to transcribe accurately, but it seems to cover the majority of the page area.
